

Original Dwelling Place

Zen Sesshin

6th -13th April 2012

Sesshin means to touch, receive and convey the heart-mind. In other words, so much more than you can say!

It's like diving deep and swimming in the ocean of the Dharma. Experiencing that which is potent, joyful, vivid and uncompromised.

Sesshin provides an opportunity to deepen your practice and return to your original dwelling place.

Teachers

Subhana Barzaghi Roshi is a resident teacher of the SZC. Subhana has over thirty years' experience in meditation practice and regularly leads Zen sesshins and Vipassana retreats throughout Australia, New Zealand, and India. Maggie Gluek has been practising Zen meditation for over twenty-five years and is an apprentice teacher in the Diamond Sangha branch of the Zen tradition.

Schedule

Silent sitting and walking meditation; private interviews with the teachers; daily dharma talk; chanting; mindfulness work practice; vegetarian meals; zen training and ritual. If you are new to sesshin prior orientation before sesshin is encouraged.

Venue

Kodoji, or Ancient Ground Temple, is the Sydney Zen Centre's retreat centre in the Upper Macdonald Valley, about two hours north-west of Sydney, via Wisemans Ferry and St Albans. Kodoji Temple sits in a beautiful valley called Gorricks Run, surrounded by high sandstone cliffs and deep wilderness. There is only limited indoor accommodation and it is generally expected that sesshin students will pitch their own tents.

Organising a sesshin at Kodoji requires a large amount of volunteer labour, and late changes cause much extra work for volunteers and/or extra costs for SZC.

- Fees are payable by 23 March. Applications or payments received after this date incur a 10% additional fee.
- No applications will be accepted after 30 March unless a cancellation occurs. Applicants who have not paid by 30 March will have their places cancelled.
